

Academic Integrity

Striving for Integrity in Research, Teaching, and Service

Charlotte Brasic Royeen, April, page 6

The Academic Unit

How to Avoid Having Dysfunctional Departments on Your Campus

Charles Powers and Ray Maghroori, February, page 4

Committees Support, Provide Continuity for Department with Short Chair Terms

March, page 7

Accreditation

Linking Accreditation and the Malcolm Baldrige Framework

Brent D. Ruben, May, page 3

Continuous Program Review Maintains Momentum for Change, Prepares for Accreditation Review

September, page 4

3 Characteristics of Meaningful Program Reviews

September, page 4

Assessment

Outcomes Assessment is Here to Stay, Get Faculty Buy In

January, page 1

Assessment Methods Should Match Institutional Goals

June, page 2

Manias, Pathologies, and Alternative Approaches to Assessment: A Response to Doubting Assessors

Jo Allen, August, page 4

Creating a Sustainable, Faculty-Driven Assessment Initiative

October, page 4

Adjuncts

Communicating Change to Adjuncts

Sandra Allen, January, page 3

Recruiting, Developing, Retaining Adjuncts

July, page 7

10 Things You Can Do to Retain Your Best Adjuncts

October, page 1

Budget

Financial Leadership from a Medieval Point of View

J.A. Sheppard, April, page 1

Creating Successful Interdisciplinary Programs

July, page 4

Careers

How to Survive (and Possibly Thrive) After Losing Your Job

March, page 1

Faculty Rate Academic Administrators at UCA

March, page 2

Forging a Partnership with Your Assistant

June, page 1

Study Identifies 5 Most Helpful Experiences for Moving from Faculty to Department Chair
August, page 1

5 Recommendations for Completing the Flexible Sabbatical: Notes from the Field
Sara E. Quay, September, page 1

The Transition from Faculty to Administrator
December, page 2

Communication

Communicating Change to Adjuncts
Sandra Allen, January, page 3

Jokes and Quotes: Tips on Public Speaking for Hardworking Deans
Carl Strikwerda, February, page 1

Becoming a More Mindful Leader
February, page 2

Curriculum

Capstone Courses Prepare Students for Transition to Working World
February, page 8

Department-less Interdisciplinary Program Provides Flexibility for Returning Adult Students
May, page 4

Learning Communities Link Courses, Bring Academic and Student Affairs Together
May, page 7

Creating Successful Interdisciplinary Programs
July, page 4

Team Approach Boosts Research-Based Learning at UC Berkeley
October, page 2

Best Practices in Civic Engagement
November, page 2

Distance Education

Department-less Interdisciplinary Program Provides Flexibility for Returning Adult Students
May, page 4

Workload and Compensation Considerations for Online Faculty
July, page 3

Taking a Holistic View of Student Retention
June, page 6

Diversity

Retaining Faculty of Color
March, page 3

What Encourages Faculty to Include Diversity Materials in Their Courses?
August, page 6

Aggressive Recruitment Improves Change of Hiring Women in STEM Disciplines
September, page 3

Faculty Development

Teaching Circles: Low-Cost, High-Impact Faculty Development
Barbara A. Mezeske, January, page 8

Web-Based Faculty Activity Reporting System Provides Easy-to-Update, Accessible Information
September, page 7

Faculty Hiring and Personnel Policies

Collegiality as Selection Criterion in the Search Process
Bob Cipriano and Peter Madonia, April, page 4

Aggressive Recruitment Improves Change of Hiring Women in STEM Disciplines
September, page 3

Faculty Expectations Regarding Personnel Decisions
Bob Cipriano and Richard Riccardi, December, page 6

Faculty Roles and Rewards

More Time Teaching Correlates with Less Pay
January, page 8

Look to Midcareer Faculty for Learning Communities
April, page 3

RACI Charts: A Tool to Identify and Acknowledge Faculty Members' Administrative Work
May, page 1

Workload and Compensation Considerations for Online Faculty
July, page 3

Department Grapples with Merit-Based Compensation Policy
November, page 5

Faculty Support

*Resource Guide Helps Faculty Help First-Year
Students*
July, page 5

CFPD Mentor Program Provides Additional Support to New Faculty
August, page 3

Web-Based Faculty Activity Reporting System Provides Easy-to-Update, Accessible Information
September, page 7

Grant Writing

A Formula for Successful Grant Writing: Four Proven Keys
A.C. "Buddy" Himes, March, page 4

Global Learning

AAC&U Works Toward Global General Education
January, page 6

Shared Futures: Two Universities' Global Learning Initiatives
January, page 7

Leadership

Changing Roles for Chairs
January, page 4

Becoming a More Mindful Leader
February, page 2

Creating a Culture of Leadership
February, page 7

Coping with a College Combination: The First 100 Days
Cheryl Achterberg, March, page 5

Understand Change Theory, Persuasion to Manage Change
July, page 1

Factors that Affect Department Chairs' Performance
July, page 6

Study Identifies 5 Most Helpful Experiences for Moving from Faculty to Department Chair
August, page 1

There's More to Leadership than Motivation and Ability
August, page 7

Mentoring Future Higher Administration Leaders: Necessity and Value of Mentoring
Henry W. Smorynski, October, page 6

Leadership and Management: Complementary Skill Sets
November, page 1

The Transition from Faculty to Administrator
December, page 2

Think Before You Leap into a Partnership
December, page 4

Parting Shot (Opinion Column)

Should Government Protect "Intellectual Diversity" at Colleges?

Thomas R. McDaniel, April, page 8

It's Merely Academic

John N. McDaniel, May, page 8

'Assessmania' and 'Bureaupathology' in Higher Education

Thomas R. McDaniel, June, page 8

Rising Above Principle

John N. McDaniel, July, page 8

Student Evaluations of Instructors: A Good Thing?

Thomas R. McDaniel, August, page 8

Student Evaluations of Instructors: A Bad Thing?

John N. McDaniel, September, page 8

When Does a Professor Cross the Academic Freedom Line?

Thomas R. McDaniel, October, page 8

In Praise of Accreditations

Thomas R. McDaniel, November, page 8

Where Are the Boys?

John N. McDaniel, December, page 8

Promotion and Tenure

GMU's Alternate Paths to Tenure Reward Teaching and Administration

June, page 4

JCC Faculty and Administrators Collaborate on Personnel Decisions

November, page 4

Faculty Expectations Regarding Personnel Decisions

Bob Cipriano and Richard Riccardi,
December, page 6

Strategic Planning

Setting Academic Priorities, Identifying Signature Programs

June, page 3

Make Informed Decisions by Using a Balanced Scorecard

October, page 5

Make Data-Informed Decisions with the Help of Institutional Research

December, page 1

Students

Capstone Courses Prepare Students for Transition to Working World

February, page 8

Dealing with Disruptive Students

April, page 7

Strengthening the Relationship with Student Affairs

May, page 2

Taking a Holistic View of Student Retention

June, page 6

Resource Guide Helps Faculty Help First-Year Students

July, page 5

'Junior Colleague' Graduate Training Model Prepares Students for Professorship

September, page 5

The Positive and Negative Effects of First-Year Learning Communities

November, page 7

Please contact www.magnapubs.com or 1-800-433-0499 for back issue and subscription information.