

2008 Index Vol. 22, Nos. 1-12

Admissions

NACAC: Admission Trends for 2008
Melissa Clinedinst, January, page 8

Why the Admissions Process Should Include an Honest Conversation about Limitations of Services
Lee Burdette Williams, February, page 1

The Hierarchy of Student Decision Making
Neal Raisman, February, page 8

Should We Require Self-Disclosure in the Admissions Process?
Stephanie F. Hughes and Carolyn Reinach Wolf,
April, page 3

SAT-Optional Admissions: Reasons to Take Another Look
Jonathan P. Epstein, May, page 3

Looking at the Costs of Student Acquisition and Attrition
Craig Heldman, May, page 6

Will I Feel Comfortable Here? Five Questions Every Residential College Must Answer
Aaron Basko, September, page 1

25 Essential Questions for Enrollment Managers
November, page 4

Diversity

SAT-Optional Admissions: Reasons to Take Another Look
Jonathan P. Epstein, May, page 3

Are We Prepared for "Seismic Demographic Shifts"?
Linda H. Fitzhugh, May, page 8

Getting Your Share of the Adult Degree Completion Market
August, page 1

Recommendations for Increasing Minority Student Success
Jennifer Patterson Lorenzetti, October, page 2

Federal Policy

Value-Added Testing is Back! Why You Should Be Skeptical and What Alternatives You Should Consider
February, page 7

Financial Aid and Student Financial Issues

Does It Make Sense to Cut Tuition Rates? An Interview with Lucie Lapovsky
March, page 3

Pressing Forward at NASFAA
Philip R. Day, March, page 8

Considering an Alternative to the Traditional Fee Policy
Brian A. Vander Schee, June, page 8

Increasing Retention by Helping Students Manage Financial Issues at Clarion University
Paul Bylaska, July, page 1

How American Pays for College ... Or Doesn't
Paul Bylaska, December, page 8

Institutional Research

Institutional Research: Building a Data-Driven Culture
Paul R. Brown and Santanu Bandyopadhyay, August, page 7

Using the NSSE to Strengthen Preenrollment Activities
Jonathan Eldridge and Matt Stillman, October, page 3

Legal Issues

Handling Student Misconduct Complaints
August, page 5

Donors and Preferential Admissions Treatment
Dennis Black, August, page 6

Marketing Technology

Student Marketing 2.0: Tapping into Social Networks
Jerry Allocca, March, page 6

Considering YouTube?
Jerry Allocca, July, page 8

Award-Winning Microsite Remains a Work in Progress
Laura Putre, August, page 3

Keys to Using Facebook Ads
Jennifer Patterson Lorenzetti, November, page 2

Millennial Students

The Top Five Things We Should Know about Marketing to Millennials in 2008
Brian A. Vander Schee, January, page 5

Recruitment Renovation: How to Enroll Your Fair Share of the Millennial Generation
Lisa Orrell, February, page 3

Millennials' Characteristics: Admissions Implications and Strategies
September, page 7

Online Students

Increasing Enrollment in a Graduate Distance Program
Chris Hill, November, page 5

Online Orientation Boosts Retention while Addressing Honor Code
Laura Putre, December, page 5

14 Ways Faculty Can Improve Online Student Retention
Jennifer Patterson Lorenzetti, December, page 6

Recruitment Strategies

Connecting with the Pre-PSAT Crowd
Jennifer Patterson Lorenzetti, April, page 8

How Improving Campus Visits Increased Applications at Franklin & Marshall College
Aaron Basko, June, page 4

Ten Steps to Writing and Implementing a Strategic International Recruitment Program
Marguerite Dennis, June, page 5

Using Alumni to Recruit at Old Dominion University
Kimberly Buster-Williams, July, page 3

Attracting and Retaining Adult Students at LeTourneau University
Chris Fontaine, July, page 5

Getting Your Share of the Adult Degree Completion Market
August, page 1

Counseling Services and Recruitment Efforts: What Do Families Want to Know?
John B. Bishop, November, page 1

Retention Strategies for At-Risk Students

Retention and College Counseling Centers
Brian Van Brunt, May, page 1

Increasing Retention by Helping Students Manage Financial Issues at Clarion University
Paul Bylaska, July, page 1

Q&A: Community College Success Centers
August, page 2

Returning Veterans: Recommendations and Resources
September, page 6

Recommendations for Increasing Minority Student Success
Jennifer Patterson Lorenzetti, October, page 2

A Multifaceted Approach to Supporting Disadvantaged Students
Angela C. Richardson and William E. Hudson, Jr.,
October, page 7

Retention Success Stories

A Purpose-Guided Campus–Homework to Mentoring Hall
Jerry Pattengale, Don Sprowl, Rob Thompson, and Kim Parker, January, page 1

The Changes One Department Made to Increase Student Engagement and Graduation Rates
Bob Cipriano and Richard L. Riccardi, January, page 4

Successful Retention at the University of New Haven
Jennifer Patterson Lorenzetti, January, page 6

Recruitment and Retention Efforts Pay Off at Salve Regina
Laura Putre, March, page 1

Retention Efforts at Utah Valley State College
Cheryl Hanewicz, Ron Hammond, and Sandi K. Ness, June, page 1

Attracting and Retaining Adult Students at LeTourneau University
Chris Fontaine, July, page 5

Safety and Security

Observe, Report, Serve, Protect, Enforce, Apprehend—Or All of These?
Ralph Hatley, March, page 4

Crisis Planning and Rivier College
Linda M. Jansky, April, page 1

Should We Require Self-Disclosure in the Admissions Process?
Stephanie F. Hughes and Carolyn Reinach Wolf, April, page 3

Handling Student Misconduct Complaints
August, page 5

Student Services

Why the Admissions Process Should Include an Honest Conversation about Limitations of Services
Lee Burdette Williams, February, page 1

Improving Retention through a Partnership among Academic Affairs, Student Life, and Residence Life
Jeffrey Buller, April, page 6

Retention and College Counseling Centers
Brian Van Brunt, May, page 1

Q&A: Community College Success Centers
August, page 2

Coming into Our Own: The Growth of Parent and Family Relations
Sally Daniels and Marjorie Savage, October, page 1

Counseling Services and Recruitment Efforts: What Do Families Want to Know?
John B. Bishop, November, page 1

A Customer Service Approach to Roommate Matching
December, page 4

Transition Programs

An Admissions Office's Guide to Transition Programs
February, page 4

Why Admissions Offices Should be Interested in Early College High Schools: An Interview with Michael B. Webb
February, page 5

An Insider's View on Early College High Schools: An Interview with Sean Callaway
February, page 5

Trends

NACAC: Admission Trends for 2008
Melissa Clinedinst, January, page 8

Are We Prepared for "Seismic Demographic Shifts"?
Linda H. Fitzhugh, May, page 8

The Future of Enrollment and Retention Management: An Interview
September, page 3

Student Demographics in the Coming Decade: Hold the Panic
Jonathan P. Epstein and Sarah Parrott, December, page 1