ONE-DAY WORKSHOP:
Ready to Learn: How to Get Your Students to Come to Class Prepared

Learning Goals
A key purpose of this workshop is to show you how to guide students during class time to apply, analyze, and evaluate the course material for a deeper learning experience.

When you complete the workshop, you’ll also be able to:

- Write class preparation assignment questions at the appropriate level of difficulty for your course
- Create a definitional grading system that assesses student preparation for class
- Design an interactive course that allows for multiple student voices and respects their intellectual abilities
- Plan two in-class active learning strategies that use student preparation for class
- Reinforce student preparation behavior
- Produce critical thinking among your students

ORDERING OPTIONS
Online: www.teachingprofessorworkshop.com
Email: support@magnapubs.com

Questions? Call: 1-800-433-0499
For teachers who want better-prepared students

What if your students came to class prepared—all set to launch into a thoughtful discussion of the course material—before a single lecture was delivered? Wouldn’t that be an exciting learning environment?

Learn how to create this dynamic experience when you register for Ready to Learn: How to Get Your Students to Come to Class Prepared, an in-person workshop from Magna Publications.

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

Deeper Learning Experience for Your Students
Prepared students are able to apply, analyze, and evaluate the course material in class

Create a Climate for Learning
Learn to design and build upon pre-class preparation activities

New Course Design Strategies
How to incentivize your students to come to class prepared

Actionable Insights
Return to campus and immediately implement what you learn

Experienced Presenters
More than three decades of experience and 33 outstanding teaching awards

Individualized Attention
Workshop size is limited

WEB: www.teachingprofessorworkshop.com
PHONE: 1-800-433-0499
EMAIL: support@magnapubs.com

Locations

August 7, 2015 – Austin, TX
Courtyard Austin Downtown

September 25, 2015 – Long Beach, CA
Courtyard Long Beach Downtown

October 9, 2015 – Cambridge, MA
Hyatt Regency Cambridge

October 23, 2015 – Atlanta, GA
DoubleTree Buckhead

October 30, 2015 – Schaumburg, IL
Courtyard Chicago Schaumburg

REGISTRATION

1 person $749
2+ people $699/ea.

On-site registration: $849
On-site rates take effect 10 days prior to the workshop’s start date.

Presenters

J. Robert Gillette, Ph.D.
Dr. J. Robert Gillette joined the faculty at the University of Kentucky in 1994 and is an associate professor of economics. He has authored or co-authored economic studies for various public agencies, including the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California, and for numerous private organizations. Dr. Gillette has also given numerous presentations and workshops on teaching at regional and national economics meetings and at colleges and universities.

Lynn Gillette, Ph.D.
Lynn Gillette, Ph.D., is the provost and vice president of academic affairs at Nicholls State University. He has received 13 awards for outstanding teaching and given over fifty presentations at professional conferences on institutional effectiveness, change management, teaching excellence and innovation, and active learning. He is also a graduate of the Management Development Program at Harvard University.

WEB: www.teachingprofessorworkshop.com
PHONE: 1-800-433-0499
EMAIL: support@magnapubs.com

For teachers who want better-prepared students

What if your students came to class prepared—all set to launch into a thoughtful discussion of the course material—before a single lecture was delivered? Wouldn’t that be an exciting learning environment?

Learn how to create this dynamic experience when you register for Ready to Learn: How to Get Your Students to Come to Class Prepared, an in-person workshop from Magna Publications.

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

Deeper Learning Experience for Your Students
Prepared students are able to apply, analyze, and evaluate the course material in class

Create a Climate for Learning
Learn to design and build upon pre-class preparation activities

New Course Design Strategies
How to incentivize your students to come to class prepared

Actionable Insights
Return to campus and immediately implement what you learn

Experienced Presenters
More than three decades of experience and 33 outstanding teaching awards

Individualized Attention
Workshop size is limited

WEB: www.teachingprofessorworkshop.com
PHONE: 1-800-433-0499
EMAIL: support@magnapubs.com

Locations

August 7, 2015 – Austin, TX
Courtyard Austin Downtown

September 25, 2015 – Long Beach, CA
Courtyard Long Beach Downtown

October 9, 2015 – Cambridge, MA
Hyatt Regency Cambridge

October 23, 2015 – Atlanta, GA
DoubleTree Buckhead

October 30, 2015 – Schaumburg, IL
Courtyard Chicago Schaumburg

REGISTRATION

1 person $749
2+ people $699/ea.

On-site registration: $849
On-site rates take effect 10 days prior to the workshop’s start date.

Presenters

J. Robert Gillette, Ph.D.
Dr. J. Robert Gillette joined the faculty at the University of Kentucky in 1994 and is an associate professor of economics. He has authored or co-authored economic studies for various public agencies, including the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California, and for numerous private organizations. Dr. Gillette has also given numerous presentations and workshops on teaching at regional and national economics meetings and at colleges and universities.

Lynn Gillette, Ph.D.
Lynn Gillette, Ph.D., is the provost and vice president of academic affairs at Nicholls State University. He has received 13 awards for outstanding teaching and given over fifty presentations at professional conferences on institutional effectiveness, change management, teaching excellence and innovation, and active learning. He is also a graduate of the Management Development Program at Harvard University.
For teachers who want better-prepared students

What if your students came to class prepared—all set to launch into a thoughtful discussion of the course material—before a single lecture was delivered? Wouldn’t that be an exciting learning environment?

Learn how to create this dynamic experience when you register for Ready to Learn: How to Get Your Students to Come to Class Prepared, an in-person workshop from Magna Publications.

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

- Deeper Learning Experience for Your Students
  Prepared students are able to apply, analyze, and evaluate the course material in class
- Create a Climate for Learning
  Learn to design and build upon pre-class preparation activities
- New Course Design Strategies
  How to incentivize your students to come to class prepared
- Actionable Insights
  Return to campus and immediately implement what you learn
- Experienced Presenters
  More than three decades of experience and 33 outstanding teaching awards
- Individualized Attention
  Workshop size is limited

WEB: www.teachingprofessorworkshop.com
PHONE: 1-800-433-0499
EMAIL: support@magnapubs.com

WEB: www.teachingprofessorworkshop.com
PHONE: 1-800-433-0499
EMAIL: support@magnapubs.com
For teachers who want better-prepared students

What if your students came to class prepared—all set to launch into a thoughtful discussion of the course material—before a single lecture was delivered? Wouldn’t that be an exciting learning environment?

Learn how to create this dynamic experience when you register for Ready to Learn: How to Get Your Students to Come to Class Prepared, an in-person workshop from Magna Publications.

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

Deeper Learning Experience for Your Students
Prepared students are able to apply, analyze, and evaluate the course material in class

Create a Climate for Learning
Learn to design and build upon pre-class preparation activities

New Course Design Strategies
How to incentivize your students to come to class prepared

Actionable Insights
Return to campus and immediately implement what you learn

Experienced Presenters
More than three decades of experience and 33 outstanding teaching awards

Individualized Attention
Workshop size is limited

Locations

August 7, 2015 – Austin, TX
Courtyard Austin Downtown

September 25, 2015 – Long Beach, CA
Courtyard Long Beach Downtown

October 9, 2015 – Cambridge, MA
Hyatt Regency Cambridge

October 23, 2015 – Atlanta, GA
DoubleTree Buckhead

October 30, 2015 – Schaumburg, IL
Courtyard Chicago Schaumburg

REGISTRATION

1 person 2+ people

$749 $699/ea.

On-site registration: $849
On-site rates take effect 10 days prior to the workshop’s start date.

Presenters

J. Robert Gillette, Ph.D.
Dr. J. Robert Gillette joined the faculty at the University of Kentucky in 1994 and is an associate professor of economics. He has authored or co-authored economic studies for various public agencies, including the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California, and for numerous private organizations. Dr. Gillette has also given numerous presentations and workshops on teaching at regional and national economics meetings and at colleges and universities.

Lynn Gillette, Ph.D.
Lynn Gillette, Ph.D., is the provost and vice president of academic affairs at Nicholls State University. He has received 13 awards for outstanding teaching and given over fifty presentations at professional conferences on institutional effectiveness, change management, teaching excellence and innovation, and active learning. He is also a graduate of the Management Development Program at Harvard University.
ONE-DAY WORKSHOP:
Ready to Learn: How to Get Your Students to Come to Class Prepared

Learning Goals
A key purpose of this workshop is to show you how to guide students during class time to apply, analyze, and evaluate the course material for a deeper learning experience.

When you complete the workshop, you’ll also be able to:
✓ Write class preparation assignment questions at the appropriate level of difficulty for your course
✓ Create a definitional grading system that assesses student preparation for class
✓ Design an interactive course that allows for multiple student voices and respects their intellectual abilities
✓ Plan two in-class active learning strategies that use student preparation for class
✓ Reinforce student preparation behavior
✓ Produce critical thinking among your students

ORDERING OPTIONS
Online: www.teachingprofessorworkshop.com
Email: support@magnapubs.com

Questions? Call: 1-800-433-0499

Ready to Learn: How to Get Your Students to Come to Class Prepared

Learning Goals
A key purpose of this workshop is to show you how to guide students during class time to apply, analyze, and evaluate the course material for a deeper learning experience.

When you complete the workshop, you’ll also be able to:
✓ Write class preparation assignment questions at the appropriate level of difficulty for your course
✓ Create a definitional grading system that assesses student preparation for class
✓ Design an interactive course that allows for multiple student voices and respects their intellectual abilities
✓ Plan two in-class active learning strategies that use student preparation for class
✓ Reinforce student preparation behavior
✓ Produce critical thinking among your students

ORDERING OPTIONS
Online: www.teachingprofessorworkshop.com
Email: support@magnapubs.com

Questions? Call: 1-800-433-0499