

MAGNA SEMINAR SERIES

MARCH 9, 2021

Blended and Flipped Course Design: Tried and True Approaches

In higher education today, the need for blended learning strategies will continue to grow. This Magna Online Seminar will help you facilitate a fast change to engaging students in face-to-face, online, or hybrid classroom using blended learning methodologies. You'll receive assistance in incorporating tools and resources that promote blended learning methods, including the flipped classroom, into new and existing course designs.

Upon completion of this program, you'll be able to:

- Clearly identify how blended learning methodologies differ from traditional course design and classroom management

- Gain introductory knowledge of methods used in blended learning, including the flipped classroom
- Begin to integrate flipped classroom concepts into new and existing courses in a face-to-face, online, and hybrid delivery
- Understand how the method of delivery may impact students

Access Available:
Start: Tues. Mar. 9, 2021
End: Mon. Mar. 22, 2021
